WHEN BIRDS CAN'T BE SHOT.

New Regulations Effective Oct. 1 Prescribe Closed Seasons.

Washington.—Amendments to the department of agriculture's regulations for the protection of migratory birds will become effective Oct. 1.

The effect of one of the changes is to permit on the Missouri and the upper waters of the Mississippi the shooting of all migratory game birds for which there is an open season from Oct. 1, 1914, to Jan. 1, 1915. After the latter date the prohibition will be in force again. Other amendments deal principally with the closed season for water fowl in various localities.

The new regulations provide for a closed season in zone No. 1 for all waterfowl from Dec. 16 to Sept. 1 next following. Exceptions to the rule prescribe the open season as follows:

In Massachusetts and Rhode Island, between Jan. 1 and Oct. 1; Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, between Jan. 10 and Oct. 1; New Jersey, between Feb. 1 and Nov. 1; Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin, between Dec. 1 and Sept. 7.

For zone No. 2 the closed season is between Jan. 16 and Oct. 1, with the following exceptions: Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana between Feb. 1 and Nov. 1; Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, between Feb. 16 and Nov. 20; Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma, between Feb. 1 and Sept. 15; Texas, Arizona and California, between Feb. 1 and Oct. 15.

FIRE DRILL IN A CHURCH.

Twelve Hundred Boston Worshipers Get Out in Record Time.

Boston.—Service at St. Peter's church, Meeting House hill, was interrupted by the Right Rev. Peter Roman the other day to give the 1,200 assembled men, women and children instructions in leaving the church in case of fire. At a sign from their pastor the parishioners all left the church in two and one-half minutes.

The congregation was divided into five groups, each group taking a separate exit. The pastor's instructions were: "Walk lively, but don't crowd. Waste no time, but do not run."

In explaining the purpose of the drill the pastor said:

"Fire drills in our schools have proved to be necessary and satisfactory. There is no reason why they should not be just as necessary in our churches and other public buildings."

YOUTHS FIGHT DUEL ON TOP OF MOUNTAIN

One Will Die as Result of Premeditated Fight.

Freeling, Va.—Two men climbed the historic Cumberland mountain and fought a pistol duel that will result in the death of at least one. The participants were James Vanover and Anderson Estep, who had been friends and neighbors since childhood. They fought clashing each other's left hand. There were no witnesses to the duel.

The battle resulted because Vanover objected to the attentions of Estep to his sister, a comely young woman. The men, both of whom are well connected and prosperous, met here, having come into town from their homes to buy supplies. Persons who saw them on the street did not notice anything out of the ordinary in their conversation. After a few minutes they rode to Cumberland mountain, near Osborne's gap, and fought. Vanover was shot through the body twice, and Estep was wounded three times. After the fight the duelists returned here.

Estep had been attentive to Miss Nina Vanover for some time. He had been warned repeatedly by the young woman's family that his attentions were not acceptable. Estep, who had no weapon, went into a local hardware store and purchased a weapon of heavy caliber and the latest make. According to Estep, Vanover was shot at the second fire, both having missed the first shot in their haste and excitement. They agreed on a second shot and clashed hands at the word given by Estep. Vanover staggered and fell heavily against his shoulder, causing his weapon to "fly up," the bullet from the heavy revolver plowing a deep gash in Estep's shoulder.

Though suffering from a mortal wound and scarcely able to stand, Vanover readily agreed to a third shot, which both men missed. After the last fire Vanover fainted from loss of blood, and Estep thought he was dead. For this reason he came into Freeling with the intention, so he claims, of surrendering to the sheriff. Shortly after Vanover, too, came down from the mountain, staggering and weak from loss of blood.

Peaks Named For Senators.
Washington.—Three high peaks in the Fairweather range on the Alaskan boundary, near Mount St. Elias, have been named for Senator Root of New York, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and ex-Senator Turner of Washington. The three senators were members of the American commission before the Alaska boundary tribunal in London in 1903. Large photographs of the peaks have been given to Mr. Root and Mr. Lodge by Superintendent Tittman of the geodetic survey, who was secretary of the American commission.

WILLIAMS ON ALBANIA.

American Minister Has Set Europe to Talking by a Startling Report.

George Fred Williams, United States minister to Greece, has created a sensation at Athens and wide comment by a report he issued concerning Albania, which country he visited recently. Mr. Williams says he saw the Epirote insurgent leader, Zogoraphos, and placed himself at the disposal of the international commission of control, which, however, gave him no reply. Mr. Williams says he considers the conditions in Albania anarchical and declares the present regime impracticable, owing to antagonistic rivalries.

GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS.

He appeals to the powers to create a neutral state, with an essentially local government.

The report attributed to Mr. Williams denounces as "a horrible crime" what the powers are doing in Albania. It does not even spare the Prince of Wied, saying of him, "I found a prince calling himself king, with no powers, no territory and no subjects except his wife and children."

Elsewhere in the report Mr. Williams says: "I uncovered at Durazzo an epochal scandal of anarchy, incompetence, hypocrisy and murder. My first effort was to find the Albanian government. I found none except six warships, and they were silent. I took opinions on the London agreement. Every one agreed that it created no government except one of armed force from abroad, for which all the authorities were clamoring."

The report accuses the Albanian government of having plunged Albania into the throes of civil and religious war and appeals to Europe to remove the Prince of Wied and the international commission and to substitute a system of cantonal government.

Since Mr. Williams was first mentioned for the mission to Greece and Montenegro he has been the subject of pointed comment. Just about the time of his nomination it became known that in 1911 he had bitterly assailed President Wilson's expressions of public policy. He rectified that denunciation, however, by praising the views the president had expressed more recently. It was explained at the time that the president had known all the time of Mr. Williams' former criticism of his views and was not offended.

Mr. Williams has had a varied career in politics and was a member of the house from 1891 to 1893. He became prominent in Democratic circles as a warm advocate of free silver.

AMERICAN CLUB IN MEXICO.

It Has Put in a Claim For Damages Sustained Last April.

A claim by the American club in Mexico City for damages sustained last April at the hands of the populace has been presented to the Mexican government through the Brazilian minister, but the government has refused to consider it on the ground that, while the club is composed of Americans, it is a Mexican corporation, operating according to the laws of the republic and enjoying the privileges of Mexican associations. Redress, the government says, must be sought through the Mexican courts.
